What Employees Say

"At McGee, Hearne & Paiz, LLP, a work-life balance is not just a catchphrase, it is a realistic and achievable part of working at the firm."

"I recently began employment at MHP and was extremely impressed with the hiring, orientation and training process. The atmosphere at MHP is cordial and professional - and this is not just a facade during the recruiting process. Staff, supervisors, managers and partners are a pleasure to work with and learn from. In the balance of a few months I have been able to work on a wide variety of projects. I highly recommend seeking employment at MHP."

"I'm proud of the integrity MHP demonstrates when working with their clients as well as their employees, and I'm proud to work with such a firm."

"I take pride in working at MHP because of how much it gives back to the community. It's a very community minded organization."

"After 8 years I'm still here, still learning new and exciting tasks, still look forward to coming to work, still enjoy working with new professionals that have been added to the team, still able to have a good work/life balance through all promotions."

"MHP is a civic minded company that is respected and well known by the community it serves. The partners and associates are active in multiple organizations throughout the community."

"Cheyenne is just the right size community - big enough to have opportunities for a great quality of life, yet without the hassles of living in a large metropolitan area. And within an hour and a half or less, we still have access to national sports teams, major shopping, snow skiing, lakes, hiking and biking trails, and more. What more could we want?"
